

2014 Read to Achieve Literacy & Football Summer Program

CES is gearing up for its 2014 Read to Achieve program and would like to invite you to enroll in our summer camp. We are committed to the development and nurturing of the “total person”. Our goal is to assist 6th through 8th grade students in developing desire and determination to learn, while promoting their growth and success both academically and athletically. This program emphasizes the importance of literacy by promoting character building traits through education and elevating the reading and writing skills of our students before they enter high school. Campers will receive a t-shirt, backpack, supplies needed for classwork, snack and lunch. (T-shirt, backpack and supplies must accompany the student daily.) We will be offering two summer sessions.

The program will focus on the following areas:

Academics:

- Speed Reading/Pleasure Reading
- Study Skills
- Reading Comprehension Skills
- Note Taking
- Vocabulary and Dictionary skills
- Test Taking strategies
- Writing skills
- Group presentation skills

Athletics:

- Football drills by SJSU top players 45 minutes a day
- Daily after school football drills offered 1:30 -3:00 pm/ $35 weekly
